Dear Jo-Thor's Dog Academy:

Congratulations! As you may know by now, you have been selected for one of Atlanta Magazine's annual "Best of Atlanta" awards, published every year in December. Your winning category is "Best Dog Training". Our editors and reporters comb the city all year to find the people and places worthy of recognition in this special issue. This year we also added readers' choice awards, done by ballot last fall. You've been recognized because of your special contribution to making Atlanta the special city it is. Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

Betsy Riley
